2014 Temple Street Children's Hospital

2015 Temple Street Children's Hospital

2016 Loughlin Óg Burns Fund

2017 BUMBLEance

This year on Thursday October 25th we are nominating BUMBLEance to be the beneficiary again.

The official Children's National Ambulance Service of Ireland

The world's first ambulance service in the world designed and tailored exclusively for children

BUMBLEance, the official Children's National Ambulance Service of Ireland, provides safe and comfortable transportation for Ireland's youngest patients between their home and children's hospitals, hospices, national paediatric treatment centres, and respite centres. Because we know how stressful it is to transport a sick child, BUMBLEance is with families every step of the way, with the comfort and safety of the children as our #1 priority.

More information on BUMBLEance can be accessed at <https://www.bumbleance.com/about-us/>

All contributions towards this worthy cause we will gratefully accept. Many thanks in advance!!

School day will be as normal as possible, apart from the Fancy Dress and Infants will go home at 2pm and all others at 3pm as usual.

Treats for pupils will be provided by the teachers so please do not send in any sweets etc with your children.

School will close Thursday 25th October for Hallowe'en Break and reopen on Monday November 5th
